

Proposal for Legal Services

The County of York is seeking proposals for general legal services in conjunction with the County's Housing Assistance Programs. The contract will run for a period of one year starting October 1, 2017 through September 30, 2018, with a renewable second and third year term.

A description of the scope of services and criteria for selection is available at the York County Planning Commission offices by phone at (717) 771-9870 or email dbrannon@ycpc.org.

Proposals should be submitted to Dory Brannon, Chief of Housing, York County Planning Commission, 28 East Market Street, York, PA 17401, and must be received no later than 2:00 pm on September 8, 2017. Faxed proposals will not be accepted.
